Overview

BIDS operates a global block trading platform in equity securities. The BIDS platform uses a unique sponsored access model, and BIDS introduced the market to electronic conditional orders. In the U.S., the BIDS Trading Alternative Trading System (ATS) is the dominant player for block volume. BIDS expanded to European equities in 2016, Canadian Equities in 2022, and Australian and Japanese equities in 2023. The BIDS network includes more than 500 global asset managers using the BIDS Trader front end and over 100 broker partners. BIDS is expanding its global footprint and diversifying its product and service offerings to customers worldwide. BIDS is a wholly owned subsidiary of Cboe Global Markets.*

*The BIDS ATS is not a registered national securities exchange or a facility thereof.
